Sweet & Sassy TINI 10.50

Tangy & sweet, with a kick of heat at the finish. Sure to wake those taste buds up. Made with house infused jalapeño vodka, triple sec, passion fruit, and fresh squeezed lime juice.

Sangria 10.50

A classical spanish style punch. Choose between Red or White. (Seasonally available frozen)

Margarita 10.50

(available rocks or frozen)

Meaning "daisy" in Spanish many theories surround who invented the margarita. All we know is that it was invented in Mexico between 1920 and 1940 and that hits the spot on a hot, sultry day. Made with gold Tequila, triple sec, and sour mix. Also available in strawberry, mango, passion-fruit, guava, and pineapple

Mojito 10.50

One of Cuba's most popular cocktails. It popped up at Sloppy Joe's, Havana in 1928. Made with rum, mint, fresh squeezed lime juice, and club soda.

... also available in strawberry, mango, passionfruit.

Dark & Stormy 10.50

Bermuda's national drink. Its name comes from a legend due to the color of the drink. It is said "the color of a cloud only a fool or dead man would sail under". Made with Gosling black seal Bermuda Rum, fresh lime juice, and ginger beer.

Poolesville Irish Coffee 10.50

Made in 1943 at Foynes Point, Ireland for tired passengers whose flight to New York was forced back due to bad weather. Our is made with Jameson, Baileys, coffee, and topped with whipped cream.

Piña Colada 10.50

(available rocks or frozen)

First created in the 1950's at the Caribe Hilton in Puerto Rico after the invention of coco Lopez. Made with coco Lopez and pineapple juice.

Starwberry Smash 10.50

A light refreshing cocktail made with fresh strawberry purée, vainilla vodka, basil, and a splash of club soda.

Lemon drop Martini 10.50

The lemon drop first appeared on the scene during the 1970's in San Francisco. Word has it, it was developed by an out-of-work vietnam vet. We've made ours just a bit fancier. Made with Scott's, triple sec, fresh lemon juice, and simple syrup.
